

FITA Target Archery Awards

FITA, The Federation International de Tir l'Arc run several International award schemes for Archery. These awards can be shot for in any country in the world affiliated to FITA, but you must claim through your own National body and provide proof of your score.

In the UK, the Star and Target awards are claimed at the tournament where you achieve the necessary score by filling in the claim form available from the organiser. The organiser will then send the claims off to GNAS with a copy of the results. Once GNAS has ratified your claim your badge will be posted out to you and your name will be published in Archery UK the quarterly magazine of the Society.

FITA Beginner Awards

In 2005 Fita launched an entry level archery program designed to motivate and reward beginner archers. There are two categories of award. Fita Feathers in Red and Gold for young and special needs beginners; and Fita Arrows from white through to gold for everyone else. Once a beginner has gained the first award, they can develop at their own pace to the top award. Archers need the co-operation of their teachers in this program to prepare and assess them.

The GNAS Version of the FITA Beginners Award Scheme was launched in April 2006. Details are available from the Coaching section of the GNAS website.

Fita Star Award & Fita Silver Star Award for Cadets and Masters

Fita Star awards are for achievement in shooting at the Ladies Fita round and Gentlemens Fita round shot in a tournament that has World Record Status. This sounds very grand, but there are very many run each year and anyone can enter.

Awards are given to anyone shooting the appropriate full Fita round for their gender and age.

The badge is in the form of a stylized gold star, on its own for the 1000, and on a coloured background with gold coloured writing for the higher score levels. For Archers shooting recurve bows the star is mounted on a shield, and for archers shooting compound it is mounted on a round badge.

Fita Silver Star awards are for archers Under 16 - the Cadet Class, and archers of 50 or over -the Masters Class, shooting the appropriate Cadet or Masters round and have a silver Star and with silver coloured writing. Cadet Boys and Masters Men the FITA 70m round (70m, 60m, 50m, 30m), Cadet Girls and Masters Women the FITA 60m round (60m, 50m, 40m, 30m)
